NEIL FRANKLAND SQUASH EVENTS

NEW FOR 2011

As the Surrey County Coach, a Part 4 Elite Performance qualified Coach an International Player and World Masters 2006 finalist, I have taken the 'Squash Course' up a level using my experience and knowledge of the game. I have been playing Squash for over years and successfully coaching for 20 of those. In 1998 I held my first Squash Course and I have developed an exciting and innovative programme that will enable any club, team, County or National Squash Player to advance their game in a fun but serious environment. With the use of video analysis and personal coaching on strategy and tactics, each student will be given the opportunity to improve their technique, agility and versatility.

My 2011 Squash non-residential courses will be held at Nuffield Health and wellbeing Centre, Pyrford Road, West Byfleet.

Each course is designed to be completely unique in it's theme and my team consists of qualified coaches and PSA professional players who each provide an excellent mix of coaching skills and knowledge of the game.

Both Adult and Junior courses have been fully booked for the past 4 years and Juniors and Adults alike have enjoyed the whole experience of improving their Squash in such a fun environment. Here are some past testimonials: "Neil and his team put a lot of effort into making sure the course was a sociable and easy-going event. There was a terrific camaraderie amongst the group right from the start".

Colin Watson, Surrey Cup Team Captain 2009.

"I have been going to Neil's Camps now for the past 6 years and have enjoyed them all. They are great for improving your Squash but best off, they're fun!"

BRITISH UNDER 23 CHAMPIONSHIPS HEAD BACK TO HUNTS COUNTY

The Sports Academy at Hunts County Squash Club are once again confirmed as hosts for the British Under 23 Championships scheduled to run between 8-10 April 2011. For the third year running the prestigious Cambridgeshire venue will play host to the most talented Under 23 players from around the country.

Over the past three years, through the support of The Sports Academy, the championships has re-established itself as a major event and become an important part of the domestic squash calendar.

Last year saw Joel Hinds (Derbyshire) and Deon Saffery (Wales) take the spoils after hard fought 3-1 victories over Joe Lee (Surrey) and Emma Chorley (Somerset) respectively. With both champions now out of age new names are guaranteed on the trophies.

A high caliber field is expected to challenge for this prestigious title and join previous winners such as current world circuit stars James Willstrop (Yorkshire) and Jenny Duncalf (Yorkshire).

Top seeds in the Men's event are likely to be World No53 Adrian Waller (Hertfordshire) and Joe Lee (Surrey) who is currently ranked No73. Both players were beaten last year by eventual winner Hinds and will be keen to renew their fierce but friendly rivalry and add the Under 23 title to the numerous National Junior titles they have already amassed.

Victoria Lust (Bedfordshire) is enjoying some success on the WISPA tour and is now ranked World No36. After missing last season's event through injury Lust will be highly motivated and should head the Women's seedings. Aiming to cause a major upset will be British Junior Open Under 17 Champion Emily Whitlock (Cheshire) who is in great form and ready to challenge higher ranked players. Online entries are now open at: <http://www.englandsquashandracketball.com/competitions/393>

Entries close at noon on Friday 25 March 2011.

ISS Canary Wharf Squash Classic: Your chance to play a pro

Here's your chance to play squash against a leading pro. But instead of getting hot and sweaty and being run ragged around the squash court, you can take on the stars at the new Wii squash game at Canary Wharf.

During the build-up to the ISS Canary Wharf Squash Classic, which takes place from March 21-25 at the East Wintergarden, new British champion Daryl Selby, former world champion Peter Nicol and current world No.7 Peter Barker will be trying their hand at the game against all-comers.

The action takes place in the Jubilee Mall at Canary Wharf on the following dates:

Monday 14: Daryl Selby

Tuesday 15: Peter Nicol

Wednesday 16: Peter Barker

Times: 11am to 3pm each day.

Please let me know if you would like to play a pro and join in the fun.

WORLD MASTERS SQUASH CHAMPIONSHIPS 2012

Website Launched

Preparations for the 11th World Masters Squash Championships which are to be held in Birmingham, England in 2012 are well underway and today seeing the launch of the official championships website: www.squashworldmasters.com

The World Masters Championships is one of the great meeting places in squash, where friends from around the world come together not just to challenge for world titles, but to celebrate our great sport – it is truly a global sporting festival.

We aim to enhance this experience by providing the opportunity for anyone coming to the UK for the Masters to have the sporting holiday of a life time.

The 2012 World Squash Masters Championships will run from 20th to 27th July with the Closing Ceremony concluding as the Opening Ceremony of the London Olympic Games begins.

This will allow everyone attending the World Masters, should they choose, to experience the 30th Summer Olympiad.

Masters Squash is thriving in England and this is a great opportunity for many players to come together and compete – some for the first and perhaps only time, for other more seasoned campaigners for another World title challenge.

The Championships will be held in Birmingham – the Heart of England. They will centre on the prestigious Edgbaston Priory Club and the University of Birmingham, which sit alongside each other in leafy Edgbaston, and yet are only a couple of miles from the bustling centre of this truly international metropolis.

Our venues will provide first class facilities, worthy of a world championships and a wide range of accommodation will be available, from self-catering on the university campus to international standard hotels.

For those wanting the Olympic experience, Birmingham is only an hour from London – and with the Green Wave and the Javelin Train, you can be in the Olympic Park in no time.

www.squashworldmasters.com has some essential information regarding the championships, the venues, the city of Birmingham and how to register for London 2012 tickets. The site will continue to be developed as the championships approach and online entries will go live later this year.

BRITISH OPEN CHAMPIONSHIPS 2011

For the first time since 1994 the British Open is scheduled to be held in London at the O₂ Arena in May 2011. The best players in the world will be competing for what is the most coveted trophy in world Squash. Additionally SKY Sports will be looking to broadcast the event finals either live or delayed live to approximately 30 million UK viewers with a revolutionary new TV production concept.

ESR is currently in discussions with various companies in relation to sponsorship of the event. As part of this, we would like to offer options on becoming a sponsor of what will be a memorable event. We have some excellent sponsorship packages available which are detailed below:

Lead Show Court Partner:

Enjoy significant branding on the glass show court visible on the master TV camera broadcast to 30 million people in the UK and 300 million globally. In addition branding across the media back drop where TV interviews will take place and logo placement on staff apparel.

Show Court Partner:

Visible branding on the master TV camera shot on the glass show court as well as the media backdrop ensuring your brand is projected to millions in the UK and globally.

Second Venue Partner:

Receive increased branding across the venue where the preliminary rounds are being played, as well as visible TV branding on the master camera shot at the O₂ Arena.

Corporate Hospitality Partner:

An increased number of corporate hospitality tickets including dinner and wine will ensure you can develop client relationships with world class squash as the backdrop. An increased number of athlete appearances will allow your clients to "chat Squash" to some of the best players in the world as well as "Play the Pro" on the show court.

Legacy Partner:

Title sponsor the "Road to London" programme which delivers community squash programmes nationally using the event as a vehicle for promotion. Your company will help 35,000 people play squash who have never played the game before.

All Partners will have their brand visible across the event including the event website, marketing materials and the on-site live presentation. Furthermore all partners will have an advertorial in the programme, exhibition space, access (where legally able to do so) to spectator data and event imagery and the use of the show court for corporate events. Lastly event brand announcements, use of England players for promotional purposes, ezines to the ESR membership, corporate hospitality and a PR campaign will form part of every package.

Should this be of interest to you, please contact Chris Nutley, Head of Competition & Events, England Squash & Racketball via email: chris.nutley@englandsquashandracketball.com or by phone: 07714 226217.
